Artistic Director Dean Owens

Thank you for attending our production of Disney's Beauty and the Beast. We truly value your presence as we tell this memorable musical story. Our show verse is Romans 5:8: "But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

Beauty and the Beast is full of wonderful opportunities to tell "a tale as old as time." This is a story deeply affected by consequences. Galatians 6:7 says, "Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. Adam reaps what he sows."

Consequences are the outcomes—either negative or the lives of those in his kingdom. The curse is one who initiated the action, but to everyone in his original sin separates us from God and enslaves us to sin. Belle does this for the beast.

Christ trivializes what Christ suffered: death, burial, and resurrection. The comparison is our show verse. Hard work, effort, and hard work, effort, and various crew, and various this performance teach and every one of them Chastain and the Creative Center (AMAC) work on this stage.

Everyone in the world asks all, "Because of our sin, Christ died up with Him needs to be restored. We are the salvation that transforms us."

But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8
